

Stormwater

"Effects of Stormwater Runoff from New Development" Robert Pitt, University of Alabama. Summarizes many stream studies, including several based on Western Washington streams.

Public Stormwater Outfalls to Puget Sound, GIS maps produced by a UW student team for People for Puget Sound

<http://pugetsound.org/programs/policy/stormwater>

King County Combined Sewer Overflow Status - where sewer combining sewage & stormwater are discharging now or recently

<http://www.kingcounty.gov/environment/wastewater/CSOstatus/Overview.aspx>

Reducing Stormwater Costs Through Low Impact Development (LID) Strategies and Practices. This report, published by the EPA, provides information to cities, counties, states, private-sector developers and others on the costs and benefits of using Low Impact Development (LID) strategies and practices to help protect and restore water quality. <http://www.epa.gov/owow/nps/lid/costs07/>

Stormwater Authority www.stormwaterauthority.org

(National news, library, technical information for engineers, contractors, site owners)

Washington State Department of Ecology Phase I Equivalent Stormwater Manuals for Western Washington. Click here.

Washington Department of Ecology NPDES Appeals site. Information about NPDES Phase I and II appeals in Washington State. Includes Pollution Control Hearings Board findings and conclusions of law. Click here.