

Frognal Estates

- Designed under 2005 Department of Ecology Stormwater Management Manual for Western Washington.
- Took advantage of the code change eliminating building setbacks at property lines.
- Took advantage of the code change allowing increasing building height from 2-story to 3-story.
- Refused to upgrade to Snohomish County's 2017 Drainage Manual
Frognal should have been required to completely upgrade to current code environmental protections.